{ presence }

from 11th September - 29th September 2018

Preview Weekend: Saturday 8th & Sunday 9th September 2018

As an artist run gallery we are very proud to represent Mark Dunford, Daniel Preece and David Wiseman - three current members of the prestigious artist collective The London Group. To coincide with the group's major exhibitions at the Penwith Gallery and Belgrave St Ives, Tregony Gallery are pleased to present the exhibition { Presence }, highlighting the work by artists from this innovative organisation which holds an integral place in the culture of British art.

Daniel Preece, 'Deptford Drift', Oil on Canvas, 120 x 150 cm.

Originally formed as a radical response to the constraining stipulations of the Royal Academy, The London Group elected its members through democratic vote and organised its exhibitions around the member's own choice of work. This ethos continues to this day, making the LG the longest running democratic artist collective still in operation.

Mark Dunford, 'Big, Bright Field'. Oil on Board. 56 x 149 cm.

The title of the exhibition [Presence] is the connecting theme we feel runs between the artists' works. Through their own distinctive approaches to painting - from fluid, ethereal watercolour to structured compositions and deeply layered planes of colour - each artist quietly declares their experience of 'presence' in their surroundings and chosen subjects.

David Wiseman 'Rushing River, Gorpley Clough'. Acrylic on Paper. 43 x 62 cm.
